Art Unit: 1732

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35

U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 1-10, drawn to an embossed oriented film, classified in class 428, subclass 156.

II. Claims 11-33, drawn to a method of embossing an optical sheet, classified in class 264, subclass 293.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the embossed film of the group I claims could be made a materially different process such as etching.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. During a telephone conversation with applicant's representative on September 27, 2004 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group II, claims 11-33. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 1-10 have been withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

8. Action on the merits of claims 11-33 follows:

9. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

10. Claims 11-33 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-48 and 60-65 of copending Application No. 10/634,104. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both applications claim a method of patterning or embossing a sheet material using patterned tool which is pressed against a sheet, while maintaining the pressure, radiantly heating the sheet using near infrared radiant energy from a radiant energy source and wherein the radiant heating includes passing the radiant energy through a relatively radiantly transparent material in contact with the sheet. In the instant case, these claims are narrower in scope than the '104 application, because the sheet used in the instant case, is claim as an anisotropic uniaxially oriented polymer sheet whereas in the '104 application the sheet had it is maintained that although the instant application is more specific, the instant applicant is encompassed the broad recitation of "sheet" in the '104 application thus being an obvious selection of sheet material.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

11. With a timely filed and properly executed Terminal Disclaimer, this case would be in condition for allowance as the method as claimed has not been taught either singularly or in combination by the prior art.

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Wisotzky et al. and Chirhart et al. both teach embossing or patterning a sheet material using infrared heating but do not teach the concept of using near-infrared heating.
